New to the market, this impressive one bedroom apartment is located on the first floor of the newly converted and sought after Thorpes Warehouse development, positioned directly on the River Trent.

The property benefits from a long entrance hallway leading into a spacious open plan living room / dining area with a Juliet balcony offering river views, and modern grey kitchen with integrated appliances offering plenty of storage. Also off the hallway is the double bedroom with floor to ceiling windows and fitted wardrobe and a separate luxury bathroom with shower.

With exposed brickwork and original beams throughout, the property is carpeted with neutral decoration and benefits from lift access and a secure-entry intercom system.

There is one allocated parking space included with the property.

Thorpes Warehouse is just a five minute walk from Newark town centre and 20 minute walk from the mainline railway station.
